

PATRICIAN
Shoe for Women

THE LAST SHALL BE FIRST

Proper footwear can make or unmake the whole costume. No designer, however skilful, can obtain the desired "Beauty Lines" unless the last is rightly proportioned and balanced.

"PATRICIAN" styles are fashioned over original models for the feminine foot only. You need not be an expert to judge "PATRICIAN" shoe-worth with perfect safety, yet the more you know of "footology" and value, the easier it is to sell you "PATRICIAN" shoes. Let us prove this statement.

PRICED REASONABLY

Low Cut, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00. Boots, $3.50, $4.00, $5.00

SEYMOUR SYCLE, 11 West Broad Street.

"THE VIRGINIA TECH."

Official Organ of V. P. I. Athletics.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BLACKSBURG, Va., September 25.—The Virginia Tech, official organ of the General Athletic Association at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, made its first appearance for the season this week. This is a weekly paper devoted to student affairs at the institute, and the first number promises to sustain the reputation made by the Tech last year, when it was doubled in size and the quality of the matter in the eight pages greatly improved. The leading article this week is on hazing, and reminds the students of the action taken last year by the student body to abolish hazing at the V. P. I.
The editor-in-chief this year is C. Taylor Adams, of Richmond; H. B. Hawkins, of Suffolk, athletic editor; W. M. Herrin, of Zuni, institute editor; J. L. Hughes and R. Shackelford, associates; D. P. Clemmer, of Middlebrook, news editor; C. H. Hawkins and F. M. Benson, associates; J. D. Hamilton, of Newport News, business manager, and F. H. Yancey and Paul Tanner, assistants.
The Young Men's Christian Association building has been headquarters

EXASPERATION

Naturally follows when you find all your collars have been ruined by bursting open because the button holes have stretched or the linen fringed around your throat. Home laundry isn't what it is cracked up to be. Bring your cuffs, collars and shirts around here, and see in what perfect condition we will return them.

EAGLE STEAM LAUNDRY
723-5 West Cary. Phone Madison 4842

A BUSY DOCTOR

is often delayed. Keep a bottle of GOWAN'S PREPARATION in the home and be prepared for pneumonia, croup, colds, coughs, grippe, pains and sores in lungs and throat. External and gives quick relief. All druggists. $1.00, 50c, 25c.

HANDSOME NEW SCHOOL IN ALEXANDRIA

NEW LEE SCHOOL FOR GIRLS ERECTED AT A COST OF $60,000.

for the new men this week, and a bureau of information has been established there with a welcome for all students, and a committee to assist them in any way possible. The new secretary, Mr. Wear, brings to his duties here experience gained in the work at the University of Texas. Certain repairs will be made in the building, and the usual reception to the new students will take place next Tuesday night.
Hereafter all athletic trophies, pennants and prizes won by V. P. I. in any contests will be displayed in the library on the third floor of the second academic building, and the exhibit will be in charge of the librarian, Miss Mary G. Lacy.

LARGE ENROLLMENT AT RANDOLPH-MACON.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ASHLAND, Va., September 25.—At present Randolph-Macon's enrollment for the current year is 50 per cent above the total number of students catalogued for last year. There are fifty men in the freshman class, coming from more widely scattered territory than ever before. Corea, Cuba, Texas and Louisiana are among the more distant residences of students.
No change has been made in last year's faculty. At one time Dr. E. W. Bowen, professor of Latin, thought of accepting a position in the chair of English at the University of the South, but has since determined to remain here.

BROTHERHOOD ORGANIZED BY COLLEGE STUDENTS.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WILLIAMSBURG, Va., September 25.—The Presbyterian students of William and Mary College met Thursday evening at "Stonybrook," the residence of Dr. Charles Edward Bishop, and organized a brotherhood, with the following officers:

President, F. H. Bear; Vice-President, R. B. Watkins; Secretary, C. E. Bishop; Treasurer, C. C. Renick.
Rev. R. L. Walton, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, presided at the meeting, which was well attended. The formal opening of William and Mary College will take place Friday evening in the college chapel. The professors appeared in hoods and gowns and the speakers were President Tyler, Professor J. W. Ritchie and Professor W. H. Keeble.

William Hodges Mann, Jr., son of the Democratic nominee for Governor, is now assistant in the department of Latin in William and Mary, in place of Professor H. T. Louthan, who will spend a year studying for a degree at the University of Chicago.
Dr. Van F. Garrett, Mrs. Garrett and Miss Little Garrett reached home yesterday from Europe, and Dr. Garrett has taken charge of his classes at William and Mary.

Saltville Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SALTVILLE, Va., September 25.—The venerable William C. Sexton, who was clerk of the County and Circuit Courts of Smyth county for forty-eight years, passed through Saltville the first of the week on his way to Bradford, this county, where he will spend several days with his brother-in-law, ex-Senator E. L. Roberts, who is regarded as being seriously ill. Mr. Sexton is now past fourscore years.
Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Rinsler, of Fort Loudin, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Wilder, of North Holston.

Mr. William Crump Tucker has removed his office to 211 American National Bank Building, this city where he will continue the general practice of law.

Smeltzer is cashier of the Iowa Savings Bank of Fort Dodge, and is also a stockholder and director of the Southern Gymnasium Company, which company is operating a large plant at North Holston, on the Holston River, near this place.
S. W. Kent, clerk of the County Court of Smyth county, was in Saltville this week on business.
Albert W. Hissine, vice-president of the Southern Gymnasium Company, was in Chicago a few days ago, when he paid a business visit to the office of his company, which is located in that city.
Mrs. F. M. Shield and son, Master Ivan Shield, left last Tuesday for their home at Hampton, Va., after spending six weeks with Mrs. Shield's sister, Mrs. J. R. Per-fater.

After spending a year in Saltville with her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Per-fater, Mrs. L. K. Fitzwater, returned to her home at Hampton, Va., on Tuesday.
Mrs. W. H. Porterfield and children are on a visit to Mrs. Porterfield's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rush Nafford, of Wytheville, Va.
F. H. Miller, the Democratic nominee for the House of Delegates, from Smyth county, was in Marion this week on business.
Rev. A. S. Thorn, professor of mathematics in Martha Washington College, preached in Saltville last Sunday morning and evening. His preaching was very much complimented, and the people here express a desire to have him back frequently during his stay at Martha Washington.

Miss Josephine Miller returned this week to Richmond, where she will take up her studies in Woman's College, of that city.
Miss Mattie Davis, who has been the guest of her cousin, Miss Josephine Miller, of Hotel Saltville, for some time, returned to her home in Lynchburg this week.
Miss Sallie Williams left Saturday for a short visit to her home at Blountville, Tenn.
E. M. Davis, H. A. Miller and J. F. Watson attended the Roanoke Fair this week. Mr. Davis and his friends made the trip in his automobile.
Miss Evelyn Turner, of Isle of Wight county, Va., is on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Henry Chapman.
W. D. Mount was in Baltimore this week on business.
The farmers in this section are making large shipments of export cattle this week.

Miss Mary Stewart Preston left Friday for Lexington, Va., where she will teach this year.
W. G. Buchanan has returned from Blountville, Tenn., where he went to attend the Crockett-Jones wedding.

Blacksburg Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BLACKSBURG, Va., September 25.—The Campus Sewing Circle was reorganized for the winter Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. L. S. Randolph, and will meet next week with Mrs. James M. of Johnston. The Thursday Club, composed of a number of young married women living in town, will meet the first week in October.
Mrs. J. S. Apperson, of Marion; Mrs. Minnie Walton, of Pulaski, and Miss Ellen Black, of Henne, Ga., are guests of Mrs. Kent Black. Harvey Apperson will spend the winter with Mrs. Black and attend the V. P. I.
Misses Violet Bennett, of Amsterdam, and Bowen, of Winston, N. C., are house guests of Mrs. L. S. Randolph on the campus.
Miss Florence Hubert has returned from a month's visit to Norfolk and Richmond, and has as her guest, Mrs. G. M. Winkler, of Thula, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Price left Blacksburg Thursday for Auburn, Ala., where the former will be a member of the faculty of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute this session.

SCHOOLS ARE CROWDED.

Authorities Arranging to Accommodate Overflow in Rented Rooms.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, Va., September 25.—The enrollment of the public schools of the city aggregates 4,168, of which 2,941 are white and 1,227 are negroes. The first enrollment is about 100 more than last year, and the schools are the largest in the history of the city. All of the buildings are crowded, some so much so that 100 children have been turned away. The school board, however, is arranging to accommodate this overflow in rented rooms until provision is made for a new high school and three more elementary schools.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

A FAIR NORTH CAROLINIAN

MRS. RALPH M. GRAVES.

the charming wife of the city editor of the New York Evening Post. Mrs. Graves was Miss Faye Griffith, of Charlotte, N. C., and her many sterling traits of heart and mind have endeared her to hosts of friends North and South, while her personal charms have commanded admiration wherever she has lent her presence.

Secret of Good Teeth

Is the health and purity of the mouth—no matter how perfect your teeth may be to start with, they will not remain so long without the right care.

Meade & Baker's
Carbolic
Mouth Wash

Preserves this health and purity. It contains 13 ingredients, 7 of which are antiseptic, and has withstood competition for 56 years.

Sold Everywhere—25c, 50c, $1.00